As the Head of the school, you will work closely with the Board of Directors and lead, inspire and manage directly a team of 5 head teachers.

YOUR ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES WILL INCLUDE TO

- promote and inspire high school educational programs, according to the mission and vision of the school, focusing on academic excellence and character development
- translate vision and strategy into actionable objectives, initiatives and actions to perform
- be able to manage and develop a team of 65+ teachers and school employees
- cultivate and develop relationships with the parents' community and other stakeholders
- constructively collaborate with and report to the school board

THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE IS TO BE EXPECTED TO HAVE

- work experience with teaching (min 5yrs) and/or managing people
- University Master Degree, and/or PhD thesis in education or equivalent preferred
- strong organizational and people skills
- mature personality with excellent interpersonal skills and moral integrity
- good presentations skills, with ability to "persuade"
- high interest in youth/students' development
- fluent English (written and spoken) and Slovak/Czech
- ability to form trust-based relationships with donors

WE OFFER (except of leading and being a part of a great team) TO:

- be part of excellent educational program environment
- work in a young multicultural environment
- have a full time and secure employment
- gain further development opportunities
- influence life of others – adults and youth

Compensation is based on related years of experience and academic qualifications

Preferred start date is: August/September 2019.

We have structured this advertisement so that our school can choose the right person. If you think you qualify with specified job requirements, please submit your motivation letter and resume (in English) to zuzana@vocato.sk.
